Dear Parents/Carers,

As a quicker method to share news with the school community, our Twitter account is now live and will be regularly updated with 'news bites'. In order to access our Twitter account, please go to:

www.twitter.com

and in the search engine, type in: @StFrancis_CPS

Information posted on our Twitter-feed will include:

- Assemblies
- Tournament/competition results (Choir, sports, etc.)
- Details about any upcoming Masses or Religious events
- PFA news
- Exciting in-school projects
- Urgent news e.g. school closures
- Trip recaps
- Information about visits from outside the school
- Celebration of work

At times, this may include photographs of the children. If you have given permission for your child's photo to be used on the website, we will take this as permission to use their photo on Twitter, unless you inform us otherwise. Names of children will not be published alongside photos.

We will continue to publish our weekly newsletter until Christmas. From January, newsletters will be less regular and our main means of communication will be through the website and Twitter.

If you would like more information, or support to create a Twitter account, Mr Lambert will be offering a short presentation in the school hall this Friday at 3.00pm to discuss in more detail.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Hallett
